

BGS National Public School
Hulimavu, Bannerghatta Road, Bengaluru

Module 3 – Parts of a Computer

Class - 1

NOTES

I. Fill in the blanks:

1. The Keyboard of a computer is used for typing.
2. The Monitor shows photos, movies and games.
3. You can click on an item on the screen using a Mouse.
4. A Printer can be used to take printout from a computer.
5. Tux paint is a Software and not a hardware.

II. State True or False:

1. Computer keyboard will have only 10 keys. F
2. Speakers help them to hear sound. T
3. CPU is the brain of a computer. T
4. We can watch cartoons on a printer. F
5. Tux paint is used for watching movies. F

III. Multiple Choice Question:

1. Select the painting software from the following options.
a) Keyboard b) Monitor c) Mouse d) Tux paint
2. Printer is used for printing what we see on the monitor.
3. Mouse is used to click an item on the monitor.
4. Name the part of the computer that looks like a TV.
a) CPU b) Monitor c) Keyboard d) Printer
5. Aarav wants to play a game and needs to click on the start button. Identify the part of computer used for clicking. b) Mouse

Learning Outcome:

- Identify the different parts of computer.
- Differentiate Computer hardware and software.

Initiation:

Started the session with video on computer hardware software.

Keywords:

- Hardware
- Software
- Computer
- Mouse
- Monitor
- Keyboard
- Printer
- Speaker

IV. Answer the following:

1. List the different types of computer hardware.

Ans: CPU, Monitor, Keyboard, Printer, Speakers.

2. Explain the meaning of the term Hardware.

Ans: The parts of the computer that we can touch and see are called Hardware.

3. Describe the term software with examples

Ans: Software helps us do activities like painting and calculations on a computer. Tux Paint and Calculator are examples.